Description

Premium Macadamia Oil is a high-quality natural grease based on waxes and oils. Its unique and especially gentle formula is designed for the care of vegan leather, smooth leather and greased leather. Its high content of waxes, such as rice or carnauba wax, provides a natural, long-lasting shine and guarantees a waterproofing effect on the leather. Shea butter and particularly macadamia oil provides gentle nourishment and softens the leather, and especially vegan leathers. This product is very similar to the traditional and well-known Mink oil, but without the mink oil component and improving its special properties for vegan leather. At Tarrago we are promoting the replacement of animal ingredients with natural and environmentally friendly ones. In order to be a sustainable company and reduce the impact on the environment as much as possible, we promote the care of our planet as we do with our most precious garments.
